Elliott Murphy's new album IT TAKES A WORRIED MAN will be released in February 2013 in Europe and the USA. Ten new songs and a reprise of a classic American folk song with Elliott's long-time backing band The Normandy All Stars featuring guitar virtuoso Olivier Durand. The album was recorded at Rec 'n Roll Studios in Brussels with additional overdubs and mixing at ACME Studios in New York and produced by Elliott's son Gaspard Murphy. A concept album with stories and characters galore, It Takes A Worried Man is perhaps Elliott's most finely produced album since his classic Just A Story From America. A great new album from a living rock 'n roll legend available soon.
